

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, May 27, 2018

In today's Gospel, Our Blessed Lord sends forth His disciples to "make disciples of all the nations." Is it possible that He could be calling you to "make disciples" of others as a priest or religious? For information regarding Religious vocations, call the Vocations office at 315-470-1468.

Solemnity of Corpus Christi, June 3, 2018

In today's Gospel, the Lord gives His apostles the banquet of His Precious Body and Blood. Are you feeling that Christ is calling you to set this banquet before others as a priest, or to draw others to this banquet as a religious? If you are interested in a religious vocation, go to www.vocations-syracuse.org or call 315-470-1468.

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 10, 2018

In today's first reading from the Book of Genesis, we hear a prophecy about how Jesus, the offspring of Mary, would crush the head of the evil one and his followers. One way in which it is possible to be an instrument for the continuing triumph of Jesus and Mary is through service as a priest or religious. For more information on a religious vocation, feel free to go to www.vocations-syracuse.org.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 17, 2018

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of how the Kingdom of God is like a seed that mysteriously grows. Could it be possible that Christ could be calling you to contribute to the mysterious growth of the Kingdom in our midst as a priest or religious? For more information regarding a religious vocation, call the Vocations office at 315-470-1468.

The Nativity of John the Baptist, June 24, 2018

As a Church, we celebrate the feast of the last of the prophets before Christ, St. John the Baptist (who said "yes" to God, even when it led to his martyrdom). God used his "yes" to change the world. What will God do with your "yes"? If you are interested in exploring this question further, feel free to go to www.vocations-syracuse.org, or call 315-470-1468.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 1, 2018

In today's second reading, we hear about how Our Lord gave freely of himself (by "becoming poor") for the sake of others. Is it possible that God could be calling you to give of yourself for others in union with Christ as a priest or religious? If you have questions about a religious vocation, go to www.vocations-syracuse.org.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 8, 2018

In today's first reading and gospel, we see Isaiah and Our Lord preaching the message entrusted to them, even when those to whom they were sent took offense at them. Do you feel a call to bring the message of the Lord to others, cost what it may, as a priest or religious? For information regarding Religious vocations, call the Vocations office at 315-470-1468.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 15, 2018

In today's first reading, the Prophet Amos speaks of how he was called by the Lord to go and prophesy and proclaim God's message to Israel. Could it be possible that you are called, like Amos, to proclaim God's prophetic message to others as a priest or religious? If you feel this call, call the Vocations office at 315-470-1468.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 22, 2018

In today's second reading, St. Paul speaks about Christ's work of reconciling divided humanity with each other and with the Father through His Blood. Is it possible that the Lord could be calling you to be an instrument of that reconciliation as a priest or religious? If you want to explore this question further, feel free to go to www.vocations-syracuse.org.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 29, 2018

In today's Gospel, we see Jesus feeding the people in a miraculous way. Do you feel that the Lord is calling you to help feed His people as a priest or religious? If you are interested in a religious vocation, go to www.vocations-syracuse.org.
